UNIVERSITY OF ZAGREB – PROFILE

The University of Zagreb, founded in 1669, is the oldest university in Croatia and particularly rich in tradition. As a comprehensive public Central European university, it offers education and research in all scientific fields and a broad spectrum of courses at all study levels, from undergraduate to postgraduate.

With 29 Faculties, 3 Art Academies and the University Centre for Croatian Studies it is the flagship educational institution in the country, a place where more than 7,500 employees and 77,000 students develop knowledge and acquire skills.

The University excels not only in teaching, but also in research, contributing with over 40% to the annual research output in Croatia.

SHORT COUNTRY INFO: CROATIA - COUNTRY OF THOUSAND ISLANDS

Geographically situated at the crossroads of the Pannonian Plain, the Balkans and the Adriatic Sea, Croatia is a country of great natural diversity, a thousand-year-old historical heritage and a pleasant climate. A perfect mixture of Central Europe and Mediterranean culture, Croatia is unique by its 1,185 islands along the coast.

At the crossroads between the East and the West, Croatia has always been a melting pot of different nations, religions and languages. In the last decades the country has been through dramatic ideological and political changes, having managed to declare independence from the six-republic state of Yugoslavia after the Homeland war.

Croatia joined the European Union in July 2013, and became the youngest, i.e. 28th EU member state.

SHORT CITY INFO – ZAGREB
