

CROATIANS IN PAST AND PRESENT NETWORKS
19 - 21 September 2019; Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia

Thursday, 19th September
(1.200 Lecture Theatre, Australian Hearing Hub)
16:00	Conference Opening Ceremony
17:30	Plenary session 1:
	Jim Hlavac, Diana Stolac: Diaspora Croatian in contact with other languages
18:30	Book presentations
19:30	Welcoming reception

Friday, 20th September
(L8, 12 Wally's Walk)
8:30	Registration
9:00	Plenary session 2:
	Ingrid Piller: Language and Migration

|

CROATIANS IN PAST AND PRESENT NETWORKS
19 - 21 September 2019; Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia

Friday, 20th September
(L8, 12 Wally's Walk)
10:00	Coffee break
	Session 1 - MIG (Chair: Rebeka Mesarić Žabčić)	Session 2 - LIT (Chair: Dorotea Milas)	Session 3 - HIST (Chair: Danijel Džino)
10:30	Rebeka Mesarić Žabčić: New wave of emigration from the Republic of Croatia	Nada Pritisanac Matulich: Croatian migrant poetry	Danijel Džino: Teaching Croatian History and Archaeology at Macquarie University in the 2010s
11:00	Željko Pavić: Internet as a new migration factor: a research from Croatia	Tvrtko Vuković: The Return of the Departed: Croatian emigrant poetry and the shaping of its affiliation to the national literature and culture	Charles Barnett: Researching Ancient Dalmatia at an Australian University
11:30	Domagoj Bebić: Greetings from King's Landing": The Role of GOT and Star Wars in Re-branding of Croatia	Milan Bošnjak: Jagoda Marinić's novel Restaurant Dalmatia – the authentic voice of the identity and life doubts of the second generation of Croatian migrants in Germany	Ewan Coopey: Diomedes in Dalmatia: What the sites of Spila Nakovana and the Sanctuary of Diomedes on Cape Ploča can tell us about the networks of Greek Culture and Myth in the Eastern Adriatic
12:00	Marijana Grbeša Zenzerović: The Winners of the Heart': The Role of the FIFA World Cup 2018 in Branding of Croatia	Ivana Žužul: The Imagery of Emigrant Literature in Croatian Literary Historiography	Natalie Abedi: Slavic migrations and networks uncovered: Insights into the most recent scholarly opinions behind the problematic topic
12:30	Vanda Babić: Review of Croatian Cultural Heritage and the Importance of the Elective University Course Croatian Cultural and Literary Heritage of Boka Kotorska in Zadar Croatia (HR)	Dorotea Milas: Communication Achievements of the Writings and Speeches of Croatian Women's Writers from the 19th and 20th Century	Amy Wood: The Dalmatian Coast and processes of transformation in the Balkans in the Early Byzantine period
13:00		Angela Sunde: The Dalmatian Diaspora in New Zealand Past & Present – research for a novel on the Croatian migrant experience in early 20th century NZ society
13:30	Lunch

CROATIANS IN PAST AND PRESENT NETWORKS
19 - 21 September 2019; Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia

Friday, 20th September
(L8, 12 Wally's Walk)
	Session 4 - AUS MIG (Chair: Karen Soldatic)	Session 5 - LING (Chair:TBA)	Session 6 - LING (Chair: TBA)
14:30	Karen Soldatic: Becoming Croatian: What does it mean to 'become' Croatian as a second generation Australian?	Milica Lukić: Glagolitic script as a symbol of Croatian cultural identity	Lidija Cvikic, Nevenka Maras: Croatian as a Second Language in the light of Curricular reform
15:00	Marijana Buljan: SBS Radio and the Croatian Community – More than 40 years of informing, creating and shaping a multicultural society	Milan Mihaljević: On language of Croatian Glagolitic breviaries 14th-16th centuries	Diana Stolac: Croatian qualifications framework (CROQF): language teaching – from kindergarten to university
15:30	Ivana Hebrang Grgić, Ana Barbarić, Jasna Novak Milić: Newspaper and journal communication in Australian Croatian community	Loretana Farkaš: Croatian Latin script throughout the centuries	Ana Mikic Čolić: Text coherence in speakers of Croatian as a foreign language
16:00	Jasna Novak Milić: Highs and Lows of Croatian Language in Australia	Sanja Vulić-Vranković: On the language of letters of Ruđer Josip Bošković	Josip Lasić, Magdalena Nigoević: Intergenerational Diglossia of the Croatian Community in Rome
16:30	Marina Perić Kaselj, Anamaria Sabatini: Emotional Capital of Australian Croats as an Impetus for new Forms of Humanistic Networking of Diaspora and Homeland - Sociolinguistic Analysis	Peter Hill: The idea of the academy and the Croatian Academy of sciences and arts
17:00	Coffee break
	Session 7 - HIST SCI (Chair: Hrvoje Tkalčić)	Session 8 - LING (Chair: Agnieszka Bedkowska-Kopczyk)	Session 9 - LIN (Chair: Jim Hlavac)
17:30	Marijana Borić: Bošković's contribution to the foundation of modern science	Jasna Šego: Learning and teaching the Croatian language by toasts and greetings	Željko Jozić: Challenges of Modern Croatian Language
18:00	Hrvoje Tkalčić: Andrija Mohorovičić's Discovery and Contribution to the Foundation of Modern Global Seismology	Agnieszka Bedkowska-Kopczyk, Veronika Rezić: The infrastructure of the Croatian language(s) in Austria	Jagoda Granić: The Croatian Standard in the Present Social Context: New Attitudes and Practices
18:30	Mary O'Kane: How do we get substantial productivity improvements? Reflections on Australia's and Croatia's scores on innovation and productivity indices	Diana Njegovan: Twenty years of Croatian tutoring in Trieste (video-conference)	Jim Hlavac, Snježana Veselica Majhut: A functional resource for translators: 'Translating from Croatian into English: A Handbook with Annotated Translations'

CROATIANS IN PAST AND PRESENT NETWORKS
19 - 21 September 2019; Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia

Saturday, 21st September
(L8, 12 Wally's Walk)
	Session 11 - AUST MIG (Chair: Renata Relja)	Session 10 - LING (Chair: Milica Mihaljević)	Session 12 - HIS (Chair: TBA)
9:00	Jeanette Mollenhauer: "It's in my blood!" Croatian Dancers in Sydney	Karolina Vrbanić Zrinski: The Pygmalion Effect in spoken Croatian discourse	Željko Holjevac: Croatian-Hungarian Networks in the 19th Century
9:30	Renata Relja, Luka Budak, Toni Popović: Life history: methodological contributions to the ethnographic research of the Croatian community contemporary identity in Sydney	Đuro Blažeka: Lexicological research of the speeches of Međimurje	Marija Benić Penava: The beginnings of tourism in Dubrovnik
10:00	Walter Lalich: A day 30 years apart in the Australian-Croatian transnational history	Milica Mihaljević: The Meaning of Words: Corpus vs. Dictionaries (A case study of Croatian Web Dictionary – Mrežnik)	Vesna Drapač, Ivan Hrštic: Croatians and the Global Catholic Network: The Case of Alojzije Stepinac in the Australian Context
10:30	Ilija Sutalo: The history of the Croatian community contribution to Soccer in Australia
11:00	Coffee break
	CSF presents: Distinguished Croatian Scientists and their Work (Chair: Luka Budak)
11:30	Frances Separovic: Structure of antimicrobial peptides in bacterial membranes
12:00	Ivan Marusic: Turbulent Fluid Flows: The Meeting of Art and Science
12:30	CLOSING CEREMONY
19:00	Conference dinner Croatian Club Sydney, Punchbowl
Sunday, 22nd September Harbour Cruise (16:30, King Street Wharf, Darling Harbour)			